18 Plaintiffs Ofelia Rodriguez, Myra Ponce, Ismael Martinez and 19 Kimberline Martinez (hereinafter collectively "Plaintiffs") have 20 timely filed a Motion for Relief from Responses Automatically 21 Deemed Admitted. Defendant United States of America (hereinafter 22 "the Government") opposes. For the reasons set forth below, the 23 Court GRANTS IN PART and DENIES IN PART Plaintiffs' motion.

24 I. BACKGROUND

25 On or about July 15, 2008, the Government served Requests 26 for Admissions upon Plaintiffs. Def.'s Ex. 1. As of September 27 15, 2008, Plaintiffs had not responded, and the Government served 28 a Notice of Deemed Admissions in which it indicated that the

1 requests for admissions were deemed admitted by virtue of 2 Plaintiffs' failure to respond thereto. Def.'s Ex. 2.
3 Plaintiffs state that they "inadvertently neglected to send out 4 their responses and denials" to the requests, and that they did 5 not realize this until the Government's counsel advised their 6 counsel of this fact. Pls.' Mem. at 3; Barraza Decl., ¶ 7.
7 Plaintiffs state that they immediately thereafter served 8 responses to the requests. Pls.' Mem. at 3; Barraza Decl., ¶ 8; 9 Pls.' Lodgment of Exhibits, Ex. B. Plaintiffs now seek relief 10 from the deemed admissions.

11 II. LEGAL STANDARDS

12 Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, applicable 13 to requests for admission, states that "[a] matter is admitted 14 unless, within 30 days after being served, the party to whom the 15 request is directed serves on the requesting party a written 16 answer or objection addressed to the matter and signed by the 17 party or its attorney." Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(3). Any matter 18 admitted under Rule 36 is "conclusively established unless the 19 court, on motion, permits the admission to be withdrawn or 20 amended." Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b). "[T]he court may permit 21 withdrawal or amendment if it would promote the presentation of 22 the merits of the action and if the court is not persuaded that 23 it would prejudice the requesting party in maintaining or 24 defending the action on the merits." Id.

25 "The first prong of this test . . . essentially asks if 26 allowing the withdrawal will aid in the resolution of the case. .
27 . ." Gallegos v. City of Los Angeles, 308 F.3d 987, 993 (9th 28 Cir. 2002). This prong is satisfied when "upholding the

1 admissions would practically eliminate any presentation of the 2 merits of the case." Conlon v. United States, 474 F.3d 616, 622
3 (9th Cir. 2007), citing Hadley v. United States, 45 F.3d 1345, 4 1348 (9th Cir. 1995). This prong is also satisfied when 5 amendment or withdrawal of the admissions would "facilitate a 6 presentation of the merits" of the case. Hadley, 45 F.3d at 7 1348.<sup>1</sup>

8 The second half of the test, the prejudice component, 9 requires "not simply that the party who obtained the admission 10 will now have to convince the factfinder of its truth. Rather, 11 it relates to the difficulty a party may face in proving its 12 case, e.g., caused by the unavailability of key witnesses, 13 because of the sudden need to obtain evidence with respect to the 14 questions previously deemed admitted." Id. (citation and 15 quotations omitted). The party relying on the deemed admission 16 has the burden of establishing that withdrawal or amendment of 17 the admission would prejudice the party's case. Id.

20
21 <sup>1</sup>Since the issuance of its ruling in Omni Home Financing, Inc. v.
22 Hartford Life and Annuity Ins. Co., 2007 WL 4570772 (S.D. Cal., Dec.
23 27, 2007), and in consideration of the issues raised in the instant 24 motion, the Court has conducted further research and analysis into the 25 standard to be used when evaluating a motion to withdraw or amend 26 admissions. Although the first half of the test in Rule 36(b) is 27 clearly satisfied when upholding the admissions would practically 28 eliminate any presentation of the merits of the case, that is not the sole criterion for withdrawal or amendment of deemed admissions. See, e.g., Januszewski v. Village of Oak Lawn, 2008 WL 4898959, at *2 (N.D.
Ill., Nov. 12, 2008); see also Bretana v. International Collection Corp., 2008 WL 4948446, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 12, 2008) (finding first prong satisfied when deemed admissions would "preclude defendants from refuting aspects of plaintiff's claims"). The Court finds the recent application of Rule 36(b) by the district courts in Januszewski and Bretana to be not only consistent with Ninth Circuit law, but also consistent with the plain language of the Rule.

1 III. DISCUSSION

2 In their September 16, 2008 responses to the Government's 3 requests for admissions (hereinafter "Plaintiffs' September 16, 4 2008 responses"), Plaintiffs expressly admitted the matters set 5 forth in Request Nos. 1, 3, 5, 14 and 15. Pls.' Lodgment of 6 Exhibits, Ex. B. Although the responses were untimely, the 7 resultant effect is that Plaintiffs presently challenge only 8 those requests not already expressly admitted by them, i.e., 9 Request Nos. 2, 4, 6-7, 8-13 and 16.

10 A. Presentation of the Merits

11 1. Request Nos. 2 and 4

12 Request Nos. 2 and 4 concern the nature of the relationship 13 between Plaintiff Myra Ponce and the decedent, Guillermo Martinez 14 Rodriguez. Request No. 2 seeks the following admission:

15 Guillermo Martinez Rodriguez and Myra Ponce were not 16 formally married in accordance with the law of the State of Baja California, Mexico.

17 Although the Government acknowledges that even a deemed 18 admission of this matter will still require an analysis of, inter 19 alia, whether Ms. Ponce qualifies as a "concubine" under Baja 20 California law, the Court is concerned about the vagueness and 21 potential overbreadth of the term "formally married" as used in 22 Request No. 2. While it does not appear that the Government 23 would use the deemed admission to foreclose Ms. Ponce from 24 attempting to establish a concubinage relationship with the 25 decedent (see Def.'s Opp'n at 7-8), allowing the admission to be 26 withdrawn will undoubtedly "facilitate a presentation of the 27 merits" of this aspect of the case. Hadley, 45 F.3d at 1348.
28 The deemed admission of Request No. 2 could potentially affect

1 Ms. Ponce's standing to sue, and thus could potentially be 2 dispositive of her claims. Accordingly, the Court finds that the 3 first prong under Rule 36(b) is satisfied as to this request.

4 Request No. 4 seeks the following admission:

5 California does not recognize "concubinage" under the 6 law of the State of Baja California, Mexico as the equivalent of common law marriage.

7 Requests for admission are permitted in order to establish the 8 truth of specified facts, as well as an "application of law to 9 fact," but are not permitted on a disputed contention of pure 10 law. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a); Playboy Enterprises, Inc. v.
11 Welles, 60 F. Supp. 2d 1050, 1057 (S.D. Cal. 1999) (stating that 12 "[r]equests for admissions cannot be used to compel an admission 13 of a conclusion of law). Request No. 4 improperly requires 14 Plaintiffs to make a conclusion of law. The Court accordingly 15 sua sponte STRIKES Request No. 4 and the deemed admission 16 thereto.

17 2. Request Nos. 6-7

18 Request Nos. 6 and 7 seek the following admissions:

19 Request No. 6: Guillermo Martinez Rodriguez' primary 20 source of income in 2005 was smuggling aliens across the international border between the United States and Mexico.

21 Request No. 7: In 2005, Luis Martinez Rodriguez paid, 22 or arranged for Guillermo Rodriguez Martinez to be 23 paid, for alien smuggling activities.

24 These requests concern the source of the decedent's income 25 in 2005. Plaintiffs argue that the deemed admissions to these 26 requests would prevent them from receiving compensation for the 27 loss of economic support by the decedent. The deemed admissions, 28 however, would not preclude Plaintiffs from presenting evidence

1 of any legally derived income earned by the decedent. Moreover, 2 should Plaintiffs wish to contend that income derived from alien 3 smuggling activities is a proper element of damages, the 4 admissions will not prevent them from doing so. The Court thus 5 finds that the first prong of the test set forth in Rule 36(b) 6 has not been satisfied.

7 3. Request Nos. 8-13

8 Request Nos. 8 through 13 concern a prior incident at the 9 border which occurred on June 4, 2005 and which allegedly 10 involved the decedent:

11 Request No. 8: On June 4, 2005, Guillermo Martinez 12 Rodriguez crossed the primary fence between Mexico and 13 the United States while engaged in alien smuggling activities.

14 Request No. 9: On June 4, 2005, Guillermo Martinez 15 Rodriguez used a rebar ladder to assist aliens over the secondary fence into the United States.

16 Request No. 10: On June 4, 2005, Guillermo Martinez
17 Rodriguez threw one or more rocks at a Border Patrol agent or agents.

18 Request No. 11: On June 4, 2005, Martin Delgado 19 Martinez witnessed Guillermo Martinez Rodriguez throw rocks at a Border Patrol agent or agents.

20 Request No. 12: On June 4, 2005, Border Patrol Agent
21 Jose Contreras fired his service weapon in Guillermo
Martinez Rodriguez' direction after Border Patrol Agent
Miguel Ponce was struck by a rock.

22 Request No. 13: [Duplicate of Request No. 11]

23 Although the deemed admissions are not case-dispositive, 24 they may certainly have an effect on the merits of the action.
25 Requiring the deemed admissions to stand would take away 26 Plaintiffs' ability to rebut the Government's asserted intent to 27 use the admissions "to help prove Decedent's identity as the 28 source of the rock thrown at Agent Campos and to prove Decedent's recklessness in 'rocking' Agent Campos despite personal knowledge that an Agent may respond to being 'rocked' with deadly force." Def.'s Opp'n at 10. If the deemed admissions are used to this effect, they may very well convince the trier of fact that the decedent did throw a rock at Agent Campos during the subject incident, an assertion which Plaintiffs hotly contest. See Pls.' Resps. to Req. for Admissions, Nos. 8-13. Given the unqualified denials of the requests set forth in the Plaintiffs' September 16, 2008 responses, in which Plaintiffs assert that the decedent was not even present at the location of the prior incident, the deemed admissions would significantly impair Plaintiffs' ability to refute the Government's assertion about the decedent's alleged prior rock-throwing incident. The Court is thus satisfied the first prong of the test in Rule 36(b) has been met as to these requests.

4. Request No. 16

Request No. 16 seeks the following admission:

On December 30, 2005, Guillermo Martinez Rodriguez threw one or more rocks at Border Patrol Agent Faustino Campos.

A trier of fact, on the basis of this admission alone, could potentially be convinced that Agent Campos was justified in shooting the decedent. This could absolutely "take the wind out of [Plaintiffs'] sails" (see Perez v. Miami-Dade County, 297 F.3d 1255, 1266 (11th Cir. 2002)), as Plaintiffs would be precluded from presenting their version of the events that took place during the incident in question. It is thus clear that this admission, when compared to the response contained in Plaintiffs' September 16, 2008 responses, in which Plaintiffs deny the

1 request without qualification, would significantly impair 2 Plaintiffs' ability to present the merits of their case and/or 3 would impair their ability to rebut the Government's and/or Agent 4 Campos' defense. The Court finds that the first prong under Rule 5 36(b) is satisfied.

6 B. Prejudice to Defendants

7 The Government has made no argument that it would be 8 prejudiced by a withdrawal or amendment of Plaintiffs' deemed 9 admissions. It carries the burden of establishing such 10 prejudice. Hadley, 45 F.3d at 1348. Therefore, the second prong 11 of Rule 36(b) is satisfied as to all requests at issue in 12 Plaintiffs' motion.

13 Plaintiffs have accordingly satisfied the two-pronged test 14 as to Request Nos. 2, 8-13 and 16.

15 IV. CONCLUSION

16 For the reasons set forth above, the Court hereby GRANTS IN 17 PART and DENIES IN PART Plaintiffs' Motion for Relief from 18 Responses Automatically Deemed Admitted, as follows:

19 1. Plaintiffs' motion as to Request Nos. 2, 8-13 and 16 is 20 GRANTED. The Court accordingly shall allow amendment of the 21 deemed admissions to these requests, and permits the answers set 22 forth in Plaintiffs' September 16, 2008 responses to stand; and 23 2. Plaintiffs' motion as to Request Nos. 6 and 7 is DENIED.

24 Plaintiffs' September 16, 2008 responses to these requests for 25 admissions are stricken and the matters therein are deemed 26 admitted.

27 //

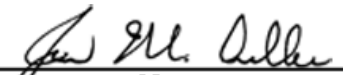

28 //

1           Additionally, the Court sua sponte STRIKES Request No. 4, 2 and the deemed admission thereto, on the basis that the request 3 constitutes an impermissible request for admission.
